New “Halloween for Kids” area at Movie Park Germany invites families to a fun Halloween experience!

Interactive show with the park's well-known Nickelodeon characters on new open-air stage

(Bottrop-Kirchhellen, 17 October 2024). This year, even more ‘trick or treat’ is planned for the Halloween season at Movie Park Germany! For all families who want to experience the fun side of Halloween, Germany's largest movie and amusement park has updated its Halloween for Kids concept and moved the center of activities to Nickelodeon LAND. To spread a cheerful Halloween atmosphere, a brand-new show on the new open-air stage takes place with the park's popular characters.

“As Germany's family park number one, we want to offer all families a friendly Halloween program,” says Managing Director Thorsten Backhaus. “For this year, we have revised our previous concept and included a celebration to make this a happy festival during the day. We are thrilled to bring kids and families the Nickelodeon brands and characters they love in this new and festive way.”

A specially choreographed, interactive family show featuring Nickelodeon's popular TV heroes awaits guests on the new open-air stage. Accompanied by cheerful songs, children can see their favorite heroes, such as the PAW Patrol or SpongeBob SquarePants, in action and take part themselves. The characters' costumes are given a special Halloween overlay. The new stage is complemented by new Halloween-related props.

But it is not just a new show that is enriching Nickelodeon LAND for Halloween. This year, the popular Halloween for Kids was moved to a new area and is now located near the “Fairy World Spin” and the “Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles: License to Drive” attractions. The attraction “Fairy World Spin” itself was transformed into a family-friendly Halloween party experience with light effects and happy Halloween music.

There are numerous family-friendly activities for all 4 to 11-year-old Halloween fans to discover. Entertaining games such as Bobbing for Apples, various craft activities and a special children's maze are among the program highlights. Hedwig the witch is also on site reading her stories to make sure the young guests have an eventful Halloween day.
